

TEACHING WITH IPADS

Course Code: T&L 2900, Teaching with iPads

This introductory course is designed for classroom teachers to explore, practice, and create content as it applies to the K-12 classroom. From basic management of iPad to content creation, participants will develop an understanding how iPad can transform teaching and learning.

LEARNING GOALS:

- ✓ Explore iPad basics & accessibility features
- ✓ Create and Build Digital Interactive Stories
- ✓ Design Blended Lessons through Screencasts
- ✓ Create & Publish Movies
- ✓ Develop Digital Age Assessments
- ✓ Publish and Share Projects within an LMS

COST

$1549 (3 CREDITS)

Newest iPad Included

LOCATION

Online

Participants will meet bi-weekly online as well as having asynchronous work.

DATE&TIME

Jun 29, 2022	Online Meeting
Jul 1, 2022	Online Meeting
Jul 6, 2022	Online Meeting
Jul 8, 2022	Online Meeting
Jul 13, 2022	Online Meeting
Jul 15, 2022	Online Meeting

REGISTER FOR THIS CLASS TODAY AT WWW.PDCAMPUS.ORG

PERSONALIZE

TRANSFORM

CREATE

Through our partnership with the University of North Dakota, we offer 3 graduate-level professional development credits for all of our courses. Upon courses completion, participants will receive an official University Transcript. Courses are also available in Non-credit version where participants can receive credit hours to submit for Act 48.